Accepting the Loving Embrace of a Devoted Father

Prodigals

So he got up and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion for him, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.

Luke 15:20 (AMP)

Prodigals are part of each of our stories. At times, we've all felt lost—unaware of a loving Father who awaits with open arms for our return. Now, having been found in Christ, we begin to see the prodigals in our lives—loved ones, children, family, friends, and neighbours.

We often wonder what our role is in their journey. We pray, we hope, and sometimes we feel alone in the waiting. But there is always hope. These prodigals are being pursued by the Good Shepherd, Who gives them every opportunity to return home.

You are invited to join our 6-week Online Coffee Connect Chat—a welcoming space where we journey together in faith and safely share our unique stories and similar burdens.
